

Benjamin (The Face Of Love Album Version)

Sanctus Real

Rain falls outside
I think the sky must know what's happening tonight
Children born while fathers die
It's that circle of life that we all live in time We've been friends for a long, long time
So if you can't talk, just cry
And know that we will talk on the other side It's bitter cold outside
But the sun still shines 'cause we can feel it
Benjamin, you mark the life that was left behind
We see him in your eyes And we will be friends for a long time
So until you can talk, just cry
And know that we'll be friends for the rest of our lives
