Doesn't Matter Anyway

Savatage

It don't matter what you said
In the mind of someone, you are now dead
What makes it bad is they're living next door
So you'll need some weapons? That's what I'm here for Seems you got us a warAK-47, Tomcat, F-11
Hardly ever used, tell me what am I bid?
You on the back wall, this is it last call
Better buy 'em now, or you'll wish that you did
You'll wish that you didI know, you know, in this world you gotta pay
It's all for sale, what's your side?
You couldn't say, no, doesn't matter anywayClaymore land mines, anti personnel kind
Good for lining borders and they're easy to hide
Bury 'em in the ground, only one way they're found
Another fine product we deliver with pride
Swing a deal on the sideM-1's, ammo too, stinger missiles, got a few
Better get 'em now, while we got 'em in store
Good for a last stand, straight out of Afghanistan
If you never use 'em, you can save 'em till your next civil war
'Cause that's what they're forI know, you know, in this world you gotta pay
It's all for sale, what's your side?
You couldn't say, hmm, doesn't matter anywayI know, you know, in this world you gotta pay
It's all for sale, what's your side?
You couldn't say, no, doesn't matter anywayNo, doesn't matter anyway
Doesn't matter anyway
No, no, noI know, you know, in this world you gotta pay
It's all for sale, what's your side?
You couldn't say, aah, doesn't matter anyway
