If I'm Lucky

State Champs

Hello sunshine
What's your name today?
Well you look so graceful but I'm not faithful
Do you really want to be with me?
Hello summer
Should I say goodbye?
Well it's been so long but I'm still thinking
If it's worth another try

Well I've got a lot to talk about
If you still want to listen or if you even care

I'm just trying to find my place in this world
And I know it's not alright to feel this way about a girl
But if you stay or if you go I'm right here with you
But you know that I'm looking for more than a pretty smile
And if I'm lucky you can stay for a while
But if you stay or if you go
I'm just hanging on again

Hello stranger
We haven't had a past
Now I learned so much
So much that time's going by so fast
Hello beautiful
It's so obvious that you're hearing every word
Are you sad?
You know, you know

That I've got a lot to talk about
If you still want to listen or if you even care

I'm just trying to find my place in this world
And I know it's not alright to feel this way about a girl
But if you stay or if you go I'm right here with you
But you know that I'm looking for more than a pretty smile
And if I'm lucky you can stay for a while
But if you stay or if you go
I'm just hanging on again

How I'd love to say,
How I'd love to say

That I'm so glad I've found my place in this world
And it's alright to feel this way about a girl
But if you stay or if you go
I'm right there with you
But you know I'm looking for more than a pretty smile
And if I'm lucky you can stay for a while
But if you stay or if you go
I'm right there with you, right

I'm just trying to find my place in this world
And I know it's not alright to feel this way about a girl
But if you stay or if you go I'm right there with you
But you know that I'm looking for more than a pretty smile
And if I'm lucky you can stay for a while
But if you stay or if you go
I'm hanging on
I'm just, I'm just hanging on
I'm just hanging on

Hello sunshine
