Ultimate Groove

Ian Gillan

I've got an aching head
And my eyes on fire
I think I'm paralyzed
With desireI know
You know
Oh, ohThere's a place not far from here
Where wolves howl at the moon
If you click your heels just now
You'll find the ultimate groove
The ultimateLay down your axe to grind
Spit out that bitter pill
Deep breath will ease the mind
And bring us closer stillThere's a place not far from here
Where wolves howl at the moon
If you click your heels just now
You'll find the ultimate groove
The ultimateThat's what I got in mind
Create some new old times
That's what I got in mind
So let's grooveAnd so and so and so she said
You know it's all just in your head
And if you work your demons through
All your dreams, all your dreams
All your dreams, will come true for you
You'll find the ultimate groove
