

Destroyer

Benediction

Originally performed by Twisted Sister he spent his life
a silent sentinel
for all to fear
he walks, he talks, he thinks, he feels, but no dare go near he takes in all he sees nothing escapes his gaze and when he strikes
he strikes for right
a glorious sight
destroyer, destroyer, destroyer
he's in town
he came to be
from a grand mistake
a mystical charade
created to decide the good and bring repercussive aid as awareness filled his fame he examined those who leered the he cleaved the air
with his fiery stare
rend all those there
destroyer, destroyer, destroyer
he's in town
destroyer, destroyer, destroyer
he's in town
a day will come you'll be drawn into the center of your town and come upon a mass of steel that cracks the very ground prepare to meet your judge don't think to run away just pray your face
holds no disgrace
for the deadly
destroyer, destroyer, destroyer
he's in
destroyer, destroyer, destroyer
he's in town
oh, he's town
you'd better stay out of his way he's gonna kick your ass
