Dying Rose

Cleopatra

A wilted flower is your love
It blooms and then it dies
The love you lost or threw away
You should never findI did love you for who you were
But the jealousy of some friend
Controls your mindYour love is a dying rose
(Dying rose)
It blooms so bright and then it goes
(And then it goes)
You came with love and understanding
But left by a letter, demandingYour love is a dying rose
(Dying rose)
It blooms so bright and then it goes
You came with love and understanding
But left by a letter, demandingYour loveI feel a pain that hurts so bad
A pain I just can't bear
I feel that I love you no more
But I do somewhereI did love you for who you were
But the jealousy of some friend
Controls your mindYour love is a dying rose
(Dying rose)
It blooms so bright and then it goes
(And then it goes)
You came with love and understanding
But left by a letter, demandingYour love is like
(Your love is like)
A dying rose
(A dying rose)Your love is like
(Your love is like)
A dying rose
(A dying rose)I did love you for who you were
But the jealousy of some friend
Controls your mindYour love is a dying rose
It blooms so bright and then it goes
You came with love and understanding
But left by a letter, demandingOh, dying rose
Came with love and understanding
Oh, dying rose
(Oh your love is like, like)

Came with love and understanding
(Oh, baby)
But left by a letter, demandingYour love is like a dying rose
Your love is like a dying rose
Your love is like a dying rose
Your love is like a dying roseYour love is like a dying rose
Your love is like a dying rose
Your love is like a dying rose
Your love is like a dying rose

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/