

Borrowed Time

Throwdown

I'll carry out my will, I'll carry out my judgment for your filth
I'll carry out my will and watch them carry you away
Justice betrays you
Judgment awaits you
In your grave
You're living on borrowed time now
Waiting for the hammer to fall
You're living on borrowed time now
Waiting for the hammer to...
I carried out my will, I carried out my judgment for your filth
I carried out my will and now I carry out my days
In my cell
Justice betrays me
Judgment awaits me
In Hell
I'm living on borrowed time now
Waiting for the hammer to fall
I'm living on borrowed time now
Waiting for the hammer to...
Fall
