Touching Heaven

Axel Rudi Pell

I keep on lookin' down to the sea
And I realize there's a life for you and me
The higher we climb, the harder we fall
Searchin' for a new world, for you and for allComing out of the shadows, hunting all without fear
Fallin' down to the ground, whising they'd disappear
Livin' all life in danger, getting out of control
Afraid of the dark, losin' one's soulForever? However, things must come to and endWe're hidin' the sun, we're on the run
And touching heaven
We're losing our minds, the stars never shine
We're touching heaven
