

Next in Line

Children of Bodom

Well let me tell why
Or did you tell your swine
"Another day goes by"
So why do you see me swept in blood So lets just fight
Wait for a dawn
Something sweeps by in pride
Erasing another life I am the chosen, next in line, sent to slaughter all mankind
Reap the souls born to die, no reason for you to fight My chance is fine
I cant stop screaming for Fuck them!
We've been obliged to sign
And relieved of our soul I am the chosen, next in line, sent to slaughter all mankind
Reap the souls born to die, no reason for you to fight [Solo] I am the chosen, next in line, sent to slaughter all mankind
Reap the souls born to die, no reason for you to fight
