Confessing My Love

Mal Hablado

(Mal Hablado)
I've been holdin in these feelings for a long time and im confessin to you baby that i really do love you.(Myra) Chorus
You've been my closest friend we've been through thick and thin, and you're confessin your love to me now.
Had i known from the start you'd already have my heart so i'm confessin my love to you now.(Myra) Sometimes i wish i'd seen this secret love for me, ohh but you kept your lovin feelins deep inside The happiness you bring that's what a friend should be, yeahh I confess to you im always
If i could ever love you more than i love you, we've kept it real so boy let's not pretend.(Myra) Chorus
You've been my closest friend
we've been through thick and thin
and you're confessin your love to me now.
Had i known from the start,
you'd already have my heart
so i'm confessin my love to you now.(Mal Hablado) I never woulda known you'd be the one i adored you kept it real with me and thats for sure my best friends the one i cherish the most in those bad times i was there at your door i'd tell you it would be alright that he loves you and it was just a fight seein you that way i just heard a sigh my real feelins i just had to hide best of all we was just so tight respected your man coz he was Mr. Right but when he was gone from your sight i felt somethin everytime i gazed in your eyes so what you say girl?(Myra) Chorus

You've been my closest friend
we've been through thick and thin and your confessin your love to me now.
Had i known from the start
you'd already have my heart
so i'm confessin my love to you now.(Mal Hablado)
The love i have for you baby ain't a lie I'll continue to love you even after i die you're my sunset up in my sky in those bad days i get a kiss from your eyes I would sacrifice anything for you just to show you that my love is true If you feel the same way say "I do" kiss my lips baby i'm confessed to you I love you(Myra)
If i could ever love you more than i love you we've kept it real so boy let's not pretend*Chorus 2X* You've been my closest friend
and you're confessin your love to me now.
Had i known from the start
you'd already have my heart so i'm confessin my love to you now.
