

A Song About Myself

The Plot In You

[Intro]

Cornered and stripped down

Eyes on the whole crowd

Drenched in your sweat, you crawl away, you crawl away[Verse 1]

And I'm sick of dropping hints

You ran us dry and fucked with friends

You're dead, fucking dead and we're hungry

Brought your girl so you're not so lonely[Chorus]

I say we hold this motherfucker down

Stomp his head 'til his lips stop moving

I say we cut him all up, burn his body

'Til he's nothing but ashes[Verse 2]

I say that you've had enough time to come to your senses

And it's probably my fault

For letting things go and giving you second chances

You seem lost and afraid, I have a soft spot

It's my fall that you crave

And that's why[Chorus][Bridge]

Damned if I do, damned if I don't

Wish it wasn't me but that's how it always goes

Screaming like a girl as we're ripping off your clothes

You're gonna die in shame so that everybody knows[Bridge][Chorus][Outro]

Taking time for peace of mind

One less mouth for us to feed

Taking time for peace of mind

One less mouth for us to feed

Taking time for peace of mind

One less mouth for us to feed

Feed
