

Hong Kong Hotel

Beverly

Start at the borderline.
To know too much is a crime.
Love the enemy and love yourself.
Cold secrets on the shelf. So long, it's gonna pass.
Such a waste of feeling.
Hong Kong we're closing fast.
Meet me at the station. You don't know the half of it,
You don't know the half of it. And if they wanna get you,
They'll get you in time.
I think ??? was a lie.
Forced to the other side, now,
and you'll see it's true.
