

Jeannine

Manhattan Transfer

Last time, last time I saw Jeannine
She looked just like a royal queen
And she cruises by with some wealthy guy
In a Cadillac limousine, last time
Last time I saw Jeannine Last time, last time I saw Jeannine
Recall when we were seventeen
I was a beau 'twas not so long ago
But too short of that long lost dream
To satisfy Jeannine Now she's gone from me
Moved away from the old neighborhood
And I'm certain she's gone for good Last time, last time I saw Jeannine
The dollar signs stood in between
It was a love lost to the rising cost
But since then, I have never seen
I haven't seen Jeannine Now she's gone from me
Moved away from the old neighborhood
And I'm certain she's gone for good Last time, last time I saw Jeannine
The dollar signs stood in between
And it was a love lost to the rising cost
But since then, I have never seen
I haven't seen Jeannine Last time, last time I saw Jeannine
Last time, last time I saw Jeannine Hey cats, are you ready?
Oh Jeannine, Jeannine
Jeannine, Jeannine
Jeannine, Jeannine
Jeannine, Jeannine Last time, last time I saw Jeannine
Last time, last time I saw Jeannine
