Hit and Run

The Bar-Kays

Well, well, well
Whoa, whoaHit and run
You were just out for fun
I thought I was the only one
Who turned you on
But I was wrongHit and run
Girl, you played your game so well
You really made it hard to tell
That all you were was
A one night standYeah, yeah, yeahThe stage was set the day we met
I thought I had the leading part
But you lied to me and led me to believe
That no one else could steal your heartBut you said you would love me good
And I thought that you were here to stay
You held me tight, it felt so right
Then you up and ran awayOh, hit and run
You were just having fun
Girl, I thought I was the only one
Who turned you on
But I was wrongHit and run
Girl, you played your game so well
You really made it hard to tell
That all you were was
A one night standWell, well, well
Woo, woo, woo, woo
YeahI bet you know I wanted you so
But love was never on your mind
No chance for me 'cause you had to leave
For a love of a different kindGirl, you lied to me, led me to believe
You were gonna be here to stay
I never understood, never thought you would Turn your back and run awayOh, hit and run
Girl, you were just out for fun
I thought I was the only one
Who turned you on
But I was wrongHit and run
Girl, you played your game so well
Girl, you really made it hard to tell, oh yeah
That all you were was a one night standHey, hey

Well
Woo, woo, wooHit and run, just for fun, ooh
Hit and run, just for fun on me
Hit and run, just for fun
