Dick barber (dialog) Hands up!

He he he, wroaa wroaa wroaa

. . . why's he got them two microphones taped together, what if we taped their dicks together? what would they say? I get a feeling o the blues

(you'd have a helluva time gettin' your pants on, I'll tell ya that...)

Oh lord, since my baby said goodbye (been gonnnne)

Dee dee dee dee

Lord I don't know what to do

All I do is sit and cry, oh lord

Since them dead-gone days you said goodbye

Well lord I thought I would be die...

The beer that made milwaukee famous

But the braves didn't hurt it any

She do me, she do you

Shes got the kind of lovin'

Lord I loved to hear when

She called me sweet daddy
