You Know What to Do

Stryper

Are you feeling lonely?Some people think they're happy, livin' for themselves
But when they're sad, they long for something else
And you can find the answer in an honest way
To get you through the sadness, to start a whole new dayWe've found a life that keeps us happy
Ooh, yes, we have and we'll live eternally
We'll always have the light to see, so can youAre you feeling lonely?
And are you feeling blue?
Does your life seem empty?
You know what to do
Yes, you do, ooh, yes, you doYou say you've go some troubles, yeah, oh, so many downs
Well, you need a light to lift you off the ground
And if your life feels senseless, just accept the Lord, c'mon
And He'll make you see things you never have seen beforeAn everlasting life abounding, ooh, yeah
Yes, He will and He's always giving more
And His light will never stop shining, no
It's for you, yes, it isAre you feeling lonely?
And are you feeling blue?
Does your life seem empty?
You know what to do, yeahAre you feeling lonely?
And are you feeling blue?
Does your life seem empty?
You know what to doAre you feeling lonely?
And are you feeling blue?
Does your life seem empty?
