The Radiance

It Dies Today

This room is dark and this bed is unfamiliar
My only company tonight is this tattered photograph
Which simply serves as a reminder of everything that I have lostThe radiance of the stars in the sky
Seems meaningless without your pictures in my mind
Reflect their images, it's meaning less
Until you open up your eyes and turn awayI long for sleep, so that I may visit you in my dreams tonight
It seems to be the closest that I come to catch their glow in your eyesThe radiance of the stars in the sky
Seems meaningless without your pictures in my mind
Reflect their images, it's meaning less
Until you open up your eyes and turn awayI wish I could just stop missing you
But you're all I have
That gives all the meaning to the beauty in the sky
The radiance, it's meaninglessThe radiance of the stars in the sky
Seems meaningless without your pictures in my mind
Reflect their images, it's meaning less
The radianceThe radiance, it's meaningless
The radiance, it's meaningless
The radiance, it's meaningless
The radiance
Until you open up your eyes and turn away
