

Awkward

Lostprophets

Yes I feel your words but I do not hear them
Don't you think its strange that time will not support my truth
Why not, Answer Yes I thought of you it all comes too easily
How come I don't see the world like you have I got my Eyes closed, I don't think so And now I save the world and its all I can believe
Smiles stand still on your face,
Not too late for me
Here I stand, I laugh when I see the world you're in
Smiles stand still on your face
But its not too late for me Now it's gone, can we start again, start anew
Will it follow us back down
Can it go through life without a frown, oh no And now I save the world and its all I can believe
Smiles stand still on your face
But its not too late for me
Here I stand and I laugh when I see the world you're in
Smiles stand still on your face,
But its not too, but its not too late for me [Repeat: x3]
(It's not too late for m)
