

One Kiss

B2k

She was so sincere
The way she grabbed my hand
And introduced herself
Like no one else has done before
And I can't lie
I was hypnotized
By the smile, and the talk and the style of the walk
And when she tried to kiss me
I just sighed
Said to myself that this can't be real
I lied to my mind but my heart it could feel
Something was wrong don't worry
That's what she said now I
Look back on the night that changed my life
I remember the things
That made me call at night
And to think that I betrayed me for one kiss
One kiss for all my trust
One kiss for all my love
One kiss caused me to break
One kiss, I just hate it
One kiss, one kiss, one kiss
That's where I started feeling
One kiss felt so good
But I never should've had that kiss
I was so far gone
She could do no wrong
'Til I caught her in the act
Downright gettin' it on How could I not see
That eventually she would break my heart
Where did it all start?
It started with a little bitty kiss
One kiss for all my trust
One kiss for all my love
One kiss caused me to break
One kiss, I just hate it
One kiss, one kiss, one kiss

That's where I started feeling

One kiss felt so good
But I never should've had that kiss
Mistook that kiss for kindness
How could I be so blinded
Should've read
Instead I made it easy, ooh
But I won't let my heart get hurt
It was all about a lesson learned
And the lesson that I learned was Taught to me by one kiss
One kiss for all my trust
One kiss for all my love
That's where I started feeling
One kiss felt so good
But I never should've had that kiss
One kiss for all my trust
One kiss for all my love
That's where I started feeling
One kiss felt so good
But I never should've had that kiss
One kiss for all my trust
One kiss for all my love
One kiss caused me to break
One kiss, one kiss, one kiss
That's where I started feeling
One kiss felt so good
But I never should've had that kiss
I've never should have that feeling
Ohh no, no, no
