Railroad Days

Poco

Saturday feelin' like Sunday
And I really haven't made my way
A lost road
It's a blown up railroad
Got to find a new engineer todayAnd it's twice as hard on my stride
When I take a day and let it rideHello, how are you, how do you do?
Can you help me? Come jump in my shoes
You'll know the feelin' of me
Thinkin' about you
And you really haven't made your wayAnd ooh, it's a lost road
A blown up railroad
Got to find a new track, lay it down
Now delayWelcome be the stranger
With a drivin' wheel all his own
Me, the rearranger
And I can't find homeSaturday feelin' like Sunday
And I really haven't made my way
A lost road
It's a blown up railroad
Got to find a new engineer todayAnd ooh, it's a lost road
A blown up railroad
Got to find a new track, lay it down
Now delay
