Vengeance

Before the Dawn

[music: Tuomas Saukkonen, words: Tuomas Saukkonen]her voice is calling again to me with songs of suffering she sings to me from beyond repeats your name and the crime you've donewith broken wings, lying six feet under her blood in your hands feeds my black burning core with flames aimed towards you I come with vengeance and hell is coming with methe silence almost unbearable brought by the violence of the one the wrath of god is unleashed the beast inside has taken the lead in me
