

Once Like You

Right Away, Great Captain!

And I felt the suck from a vampire teething Oh be it love not collapse
And I am afraid if I sleep you'll never love me
Now you don't have to answer that What did you think you'd say to convince me to listen
Well I am the one that talks to walls instead of men And after its done and buried I will haunt our children Till they believe there's no God to stop my plan yeah
When I was young I had dreams of being a someone Tied up in fictions that's the sun Blinded my eyes and I was lost for most last summer
It doesn't matter much I still feel the same And I was a father once like you I was misguided Stabbing a fork into my palm to see your plan doesn't it make you sick to know that you are causing 30 or so mens death that don't deserve to die
So I will lie
