

Days Are Numbered

Black Veil Brides

Before your life is over, know this to be true.
All the hate we hold inside still won't save your youth.
Don't waste your time on tragedy, easy to forget.
Time has lost, enemies fought, aren't worth the price to live.

One day, at a time.
One day, at a time.
Listen when we're calling.
Your time has arrived.

Our Days are Numbered in a world of fools.
We feel the hunger and follow no one's rules.
Everybody wants eternal life, nobody can seem to get it right.
Our days are numbered and you're no fools.

Nobody's fool.
Man worships the gospel that they preach to you.
Living like a demon, a burden left to prove.
You can live your life in Heaven, or create your Hell.
We will write our end result with every tale we tell.

One day, at a time.
One day, at a time.
Listen when we're calling.

Your time has arrived.
Our Days are Numbered, in a world of fools.
We feel the hunger and follow no one's rules.
Everybody wants eternal life, nobody can seem to get it right.
Our days are numbered and you're no fools.

Nobody's fool.
These steps, we take, to be fearless
Are yours.
Life is yours.
When death's at stake, you'll be fearless.

Be sure.
Life is yours.

Our Days are Numbered, in a world of fools.
We feel the hunger, and follow no one's rules.
Everybody wants eternal life.
Nobody can seem to get it right.

Our Days are Numbered, and you're no fool.
Nobody's fool. x3
