

One Life

Sevendust

Another slow day dreaming of a crowdless face
Reaching over just to feel your hand in mine
Holds me over
I remember times always felt like this
I'd never thought I'd ever see the end in sight
When life is over.I don't know.. if i know.. which way to go..
One day. One life. One love I won't deny.
We pray and we lie. One curse that'll never die.
Surrender your mind. And pray to God before you die.
One day and one life.(music)Here I am and I can't complain.
Inside the struggle I see our worlds collide.
Ya... It doesn't matter.
Can't depend on life ever making sense.
It's hard to say when I'm running out of time.
Ya.... It's almost overI don't know.. if i know.. which way to go..
One day. One life. One love I won't deny.
We pray and we lie. One curse that never dies.
Surrender your mind. And pray to God before you die.
One day and one life.I don't know... if I know when that day will come.
The blessing and the curses are not afraid to go
I don't know when I'll go.....
I don't know when I'll go.....
Nooooo..(guitar solo)One day. One life. One love I won't deny.
We pray and we lie. One curse that never dies.
Surrender your mind. And pray to God before you die.
One day and one life.(music)
