Goodbye Yesterday

Amber Rhodes

I got no sleep last night,
My love and I got in a fight,
It ain't the first time,
Sure won't be the last

My wallets gettin' thin,
And I have gained another ten,
I'm telling you,
What a week I've had

But today's a brand new day,
Things are gonna start today

So what if the rain cloud chases the sun down?
My day still is bright.
Who cares if my love life's taken a nose dive?
I will be alright.

'Cause I still got a song to sing,
And there is music here to play,
Hello tomorrow,
Goodbye yesterday

So he leaves me in the dust,
Shatters my world and my heart,
Just pick up the pieces,
And start again

Who knows what tomorrow brings?
I'd like to think great many things,
I'm telling you,
Listen up my friend;

It's your life,
It's in your hand,
Take from it,
All that you can

So what if the rain cloud chases the sun down?
My day still is bright.

Who cares if my love life's taken a nose dive?
I will be alright.

'Cause I still got a song to sing,
And there is music here to play,
Hello tomorrow,
Goodbye yesterday

So what if the rain cloud chases the sun down?
My day still is bright.
Who cares if my love life's taken a nose dive? (ohh)
I will be alright.

'Cause I still got a song to sing,
And there is music here to play,
Hello tomorrow,
Goodbye yesterday...

Hello tomorrow,
Goodbye yesterday...

Hello tomorrow,
Goodbye yesterday...
