

Last Song

Kill Your Idols

And Maybe I was wrong Maybe I dont belong Maybe Im not so strong Maybe this is my last song. Who am I? Where do I fit in? I thought I found it, I thought you were my peers, I thought I beat my fears, I thought there were no more tears, I thought that all had disappeared. Well dont worry, I wont hold you back. I have made my last attack. I will gain from what you lack, Humiliation, it feels like a smack. And Maybe I was wrong Maybe I dont belong Maybe Im not so strong Maybe this is my last song. Stinging cheeks and watery eyes. Hey guess what? Its me I despise. Maybe if I was more passive. Then I could just live and let live. But to me its more then that. Catchy rhymes of bullshit lines. I thought these were the best of times? Well, I was in for a surprise
