I Hear Your Heart Singing

The Gun Club

A truck flashed at me alone
One eye and still
I've mountains of pain to bear
Up, upon that hillSo I, I put them down
In the shadows of the leavesI hear your heart singing
I hear your heart sing
I hear your heart singing
I hear your heart singThe streets I prowl
So secretly I see
Sirens and trains at night
They don't frighten meSo, I dismiss the sound
To the end of the nightI hear your heart singing
I hear your heart sing
I hear your heart singing
I hear your heart singThe note you found
That you blew across town
Over my face
And into this placeOh, soul of so and so
Come and go with me
I'll take you in the water pools
I'll take you through the reedsAnd it's beyond the shore
With an ear to the streamI hear your heart singing
I hear your heart sing
I hear your heart singing
I hear your heart singTaboos you choose
They leave me amused
Leaves not a trace
Of your burning faceAs the truck flashes me
I know the sins you reap
Moon-fish cast an eye on you
While you oversleepAcross the sea
To the distant shoreI hear your heart singing
I hear your heart sing
I hear your heart singing
I hear your heart singI hear your heart singing
I hear your heart singing
I hear your heart singing
I hear your heart sing
