

So Jealous

Lisa Mitchell

I don't want to be part of the problem
I try so hard to get roughed up
Fists on up, it looks that easy
Looks that way to me, looks that way to you
But then there's you telling me I can
Then there's you screaming say something I want the ocean right now, I want the ocean right now
I get so jealous that I can't even work
I get so jealous that I can't even work
There I am in the morning, I don't like what I see
There I am in the morning, I don't like what I see I don't know how it's become such a problem
Keep you up all night if I try to remain calm
How can they ask why I feel so angry?
Do you see my problem if I never explain it?
But then there's you asking me how long
Say something, it's taken me so long I want the ocean right now, I want the ocean right now
I get so jealous that I can't even work
I get so jealous that I can't even work
I get so jealous that I can't even work
I get so jealous that I can't even work
There I am in the morning, I don't like what I see
There I am in the morning, I don't like what I see
