

Annihilation

Axis of Advance

Desperation has taken its hold
Tension like that of a vise
Squeezing to death the very soul
Of a man born to die in this hell
Hostile impact slices through
The collective conscious hope
Grudges can't overcome the panic
There is just no way to train against this Bloodthirst, lust for slaughter
Words that lack meaning as you watch your brothers die
Kneel before the furious gods of genocide
Betrayal by the cunning regime
Pray to die quickly
Fooled into the heart of devastation
Never to walk again - as a free man
War is the cell you must endure forever Hell, boundless hell
Ruins, the rumble of flames
Gas, smoke, death and the horror
Minds changed, never the same
Images, nightmares, screaming, sweating
Again and again No one survives the dawn of the blackest day
Loyalty demands suicide, it is our time
