Lies

Allele

So much for, your fake innocence
Was this all for meAll alone, on my own
Caught up in your lies
What if they knew it was you
Caught up in disguise
After all I've done for you
Wait and see how it's gunna be
Caught up in your liesSo cynical, so many faces
Inside I wonder, just how you made itAll alone, on my own
Caught up in your lies
What if they knew it was you
Caught up in disguise
After all I've done for you
Wait and see how it's gunna be
Caught up in your liesBecause of you
Because of you that I'm here
In this place alone with no one to be Completely because of youYour lies [x3]Caught up in your lies
What if they knew it was you
Caught up in disguise
After all I've done for you
Wait and see how it's gunna be
Caught up in your liesIn your lies
I'm caught up
I'm caught up
I'm caught up in the liesWill we ever find the truth?
