

Now You Know

The Haunted

One last try. Unfinished promise, reach down deep inside.I give up the day I die
at least this pains mine!We all die!

You and I!

Live a life

or live a lie!No retreat, no giving in,
no spiritual surrender.Face the facts. You're life is pain, you're lost inside your mind.We all die!

You and I!

Live a life

or live a lie!

So now you know,
life's lesson has taught me well
I have no hopes.Worn down, broken and beat by society's lies.

New pride,

found in the struggle of your survival.We all die!

You and I!

Live a life

or live a lie!So now you know,
life's lesson has taught me well
I have no hopes.Facing yourself.

Realize that you're nothing.

Through the eyes of despair,
a new fire rises.

Life lived uncompered,
you set your own standards.

In one final statement;

Do what thou wilt...!So now you know,

life's lesson has taught me well

I have no hope...Demonseed,

rise in me! (x2)
