

Oh Lord

Jessie J

I don't wanna do this life anymore
I'm always fucking tired I get so bored
I feel trapped
And I hate that I'm insecure
Yeah I work my ass off but what for Maybe I should go back to the stage
Play somebody else for a couple days
Yeah I work my ass off but what for My old life prays no one's missing
My life's changed, people treat me different
Oh lord
Oh lord
I'm asking for a better day
Please help me find my way
And now I'm in my way lord, yeah
I need you to help me find my way
Remind me
Remind me why I sing
Remind me why I sing
Oh, please, please, please
Please, please, please
Please...
Bring it back to me
