If Only

A1

I said I'd never leave you
I said that I would never let you down
I needed a chance to prove my love to you
Till time is throughThe promises I gave you
I never meant to see them left untrue
You were my everything, I give my heart to you
To start a newAnd all of the days just pass me by
So I pray and I'm asking why
All that I ask is one more try
'Cos I never wanna say goodbyeIf only I listened to my heart
Then maybe we wouldn't be apart
Now all I can dream about is you
And baby that's all I doIf only we two could start a new
I promise I'd never be untrue
'Cos all I can dream about is you
And baby that's all I doYou're looking for another
I'm looking for a chance with you again
I guess I never showed you
What you mean to me, can't you seeEverything I told you
And everything I did I feel was wrong
I didn't know the words I said would Make you leave, please believeAnd all of the days just pass me by
So I pray and I'm asking why
All that I ask is one more try
'Cos I never wanna say goodbyeIf only I listened to my heart
Then maybe we wouldn't be apart
Now all I can dream about is you
And baby that's all I doIf only we two could start a new
I promise I'd never be untrue
'Cos all I can dream about is you
And baby that's all I doIf only, if only, if only, all I do
If only, if only, if only, all I doIf only I listened to my heart
(If only, if only, if only, all I do)
Then maybe we wouldn't be apart
Now all I can dream about is you
(If only, if only, if only, all I do)
And baby that's all I doIf only I listened to my heart
Then maybe we wouldn't be apart
Now all I can dream about is you

And baby that's all I doIf only we two could start a new
I promise I'd never be untrue
'Cos all I can dream about is you
And baby that's all I doIf only I listened to my heart
Then maybe we wouldn't be apart
Now all I can dream about is you
And baby that's all I doIf only we two could start a new
I promise I'd never be untrue
'Cos all I can dream about is you
And baby that's all I do
