Twice

Catfish and the Bottlemen

[Verse 1]
Maybe I don't mind
Just getting high in mine
We're shouting over music
With a friend who's like a brother
Cause if I get time
I just regret most shit[Pre-Chorus]
From every hangover my head feels
To every ex I didn't treat right
To every Monday I call in sick
To ever argument I let slide[Chorus]
Christ, I ain't ever going back to thinking straight
Cause twice, twice it brought me down
But it's the last time[Verse 2]
Maybe I'll grow tired
Of you bitching all the time
Cause when you love the way you're living
It's hard to fret about much
Cause if I get time
I just regret most of it[Pre-Chorus]
From every hangover my head feels
To every ex I didn't treat right
To every Monday I call in sick
To ever argument I let slide[Chorus x2]
Christ, I ain't ever going back to thinking straight
Cause twice, twice it brought me down
But it's the last time[Pre-Chorus]
From every hangover my head feels
To every ex I didn't treat right
To every Monday I call in sick
To ever argument I let slide[Chorus]
Christ, I ain't ever going back to thinking straight
Cause twice, (yeah, twice)
Twice it brought me down
But it's the last time
