

The Game Never Ends

Stratovarius

Concord and tears from industrial giants
Apologies counting for nothing
Graveyard obsessions and shallow confessions
The game never ends in a drawAn eternal horizon that reaches the sky
When we're standing together, we cannot ever die
And we're chasing the darkness away without cry
Never die, never die, we never dieFragile and cold by the side of a mountain
Big hopelessness bearing to promise
Brothers and sisters of metal together
We'll conquer the evil as oneAn eternal horizon that reaches the sky
When we're standing together, we cannot ever die
And we're chasing the darkness away without cry
Never die, never die, we never dieAn eternal horizon that reaches the sky
When we're standing together, we cannot ever die
And we're chasing the darkness away without cry
Never die, never dieAn eternal horizon that reaches the sky
When we're standing together, we cannot ever die
And we're chasing the darkness away without cry
Never die, never die, we never die
