At Gunpoint

Walking On Cars

No I'm not calling you crazy
I'm just calling out
Sometimes you amaze me
When you bring me down
The world comes to a standstill when you come around
But I'm just screaming in silence
Can you hear me now?You stick to your guns when they're against my head
And this time around aim for my chest insteadTake me down
I see your bluff
I'm calling out because I've had enough
I'm not calling you crazy
I'm just calling out
We're even nowNo, we're not falling in love
We're just falling out
I'd love to say I love you
But I have to doubt
A million of these pieces I can't figure out
But I'm just screaming in silence
Can you hear me now?You stick to your guns when they're against my headTake me down
I see your bluff
I'm calling out because I've had enoughTake me down
I see your bluff
I'm calling out because I've had enoughI'm not calling you crazy
I'm just calling out
We're even nowI'm not calling you crazy
I'm just calling out
We're even nowOh I'm leaving now
Oh I'm leaving now
Oh I'm leaving now
Oh I'mTake me down
I see your bluff
I'm calling out because I've had enoughTake me down
I see your bluff
I'm calling out because I've had enoughI'm not calling you crazy
I'm just calling out
We're even nowI'm not calling you crazy
I'm just calling out
We're even nowWe're even, we're even now
We're even now

We're even, we're even now
We're even now
We're even nowI'm leaving now
