Bad, Wicked World

Frank Black

Bad, wicked world
Bad, wicked world
They are about dressed to deceive
Conquistadores that have been sentBad, wicked world
Bad, wicked world
Some sell him out, some won't believe
An architect named David VincentA man too long without sleep
He took a wrong turn and people just laughed
A ship that is not there
But he knows that it was
It made a light and a buzz
He's really hurt because People don't carePeople think he's a creep
He will not stop, he keeps on talkin'
Just a tie and a suit
He's a lonely persuader
Fist throwing crusader
Against invaders won't be muteBad, wicked world
Bad, wicked world
Some sell him out, some won't believe
An architect named David VincentBad, wicked world
Bad, wicked world
They are about dressed to deceive
Conquistadores that have been sentAbout once a week
Another story has leaked and he's on it
Just a suit and a tie will it ever end?
He hasn't got a friend
Pinkies that won't bend
He really must tryBad, wicked world
Bad, wicked world
Some sell him out, some won't believe
An architect named David Vincent

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/