

Impending Disaster

DevilDriver

There's dirt on his shoes and there mud on his back
He's been chasing his nightmares for days
I'm running with evil, its impending disaster
I've finally steered clear of his way I see it staring you down
I feel it wrapping around
Shits taking you down so quick
I see it staring you down
I feel it wrapping around
Shits taking you down so quick Why can't I help my friend when he won't even help himself I can't yell at you because
I've yelled at myself so many times
Hard times, hard times
Goddamn we're two of a kind I can't yell at you because
I've yelled at myself so many times
Who now is to blame
When karma keeps coming around Hard times and troubles we all live in peril
Its difficult, full of dismay
He buries his feelings, he shrouds his light
With oh so many evil thoughts It's the dirt on your shoes
It's mud on our back
That makes us one in the same I see it staring you down
I feel it wrapping you round
Shits taking you down so quick I can't yell at you because
I've yelled at myself so many times
Hard times, hard times
Goddamn we're two of a kind I can't yell at you because
I've yelled at myself so many times
Who now is to blame
When karma keeps coming around With oh so many evil things
Oh so
Oh so evil things
Oh so evil things Who now is to blame
When karma keeps coming around
