

Saviour

Dredge

Somewhere between my sleep
Somewhere beneath my skin
    In places I can't see
Something is known to be a sin
    Hiding inside my eyes
    Burning from deep within
    Something that needs a lie
    Trying to turn into a sin
Rescue me before I lose control
Rescue me from this fire in my soul
There's only you who can stop me from falling
    I need a saviour, need my saviour
    Rescue me before I lose my head
    Rescue me from the sight of regret
'Cause only your love can stop me from wanting
    I need a saviour, you're my saviour

Knocking behind my door
    Asking to be let in
    Something I have ignored
    Wanting to be a sin
It's been around for so long
    And waiting to begin
    I know that it's so wrong
    Can't let it be a sin
Rescue me before I lose control
Rescue me from this fire in my soul
There's only you who can stop me from falling
    I need a saviour, need my saviour
    Rescue me before I lose my head
    Rescue me from the sight of regret
'Cause only your love can stop me from wanting
    I need a saviour, you're my saviour
