

Different Things

MxPx

She's been told so many different things
She just don't know what she believes
It all makes sense at the time
But don't forget that we are blind When the obvious is real
She still ignores the way she feels
You can run, jump, sit or stand around
But not for long unless you've found Jesus Christ, God, Son and sacrifice
Believe in Him, He'll open up your eyes
