Stray

Heatmiser

It was a deep sleep
I woke up weak
And I felt like a strayAnd I've been through a lot for nothing
I was shaking, an alien
Used to nothing
Coming to nothing, are you coming to stay?Oh, how familiar you are
Coming to take my place
To take this disgrace
StrayIt was a deep sleep
I woke up weak
With your question
And your promise not to separateAn I refuse the empty space, what's with me
That's what's with meAre you coming to stay?
Oh how familiar you are
Coming to take my place
When I wake up in the Lone Star State
Stray
