Wide Open

Darden Smith

Sun going down, fight the traffic
Unlock my front door
Check my machine, grab a bite
Put on clean clothesSee your picture there on the table
Suddenly everything stops
'Cause my heart is still wide open
My heart is still open for youFriends come around
With their laughter
Take me out drinking
Raise a glass, tell a jokeHear the band, I'm lost in a daze
I just remember the two of us dancing
I remember holding you closeAnd my heart is still wide open
My heart is still open for you
My heart is still wide openLove doesn't just disappear with a lover
You're always with me
You're always with me wherever I goStumble in, drop all my clothes
Pull up the blanket
Toss and turn, dreamingRunning, you're just out of reach
Sun comes up, my first cup of coffee
Have to admit nothing has changed'Cause my heart is still wide open
My heart is still open for you
My heart is still wide open
I'm hoping you will come back through
