I will forget you

íœ˜ì„±

I used to be so warm hearted until
She started freezing my blood
That girl had intent to kill
But she is not cold enoughI used to have so many more friends until, she started scaring all of them
Now that, she's my ex I dont ever wanna see her againGirl, I will forget you
Like I always do
Girl, I'll find someone who
Who looks nothing like you
Girl, I will forget you like you never wanted me to
Girl, I'll find someone who
Who reminds me nothing of youI used to have so many more firends until she started scaring them to death
Now that shes my ex
Guys I wanna be friends againGirl, I will forget you
Like I always do
Girl, I'll find someone who
Who looks nothing like you
And girl, I will forget you like you never wanted me to
Girl, I'll find someone who
Who reminds me nothing of youAfter all
When you hear me on your radio tell them
Who wrote this for me?
Ex-boyfriend on my stereo no
That boy went crazyOh!
I'll forget that you ever lived
I'm gonna foget that you ever exsisted
And girl you better hope my new girlfriend
Never finds out what you did
Umm, I wanted you to know that uh,Girl! I will forget you
Like I always do
Girl, I'll find someone who
Who looks nothing like you
When my new girlfriend finds out what you said
Then your fucken dead!
Girl, I'll find someone who
Who reminds me nothing of youAfter all
If you hear me on your radio
Well show them

Who wrote this for me?
Ex-boyfriend on my stereo no
That boy went crazyOh!
I'm gonna forget that you ever lived
I'm gonna forget that you ever exsisted
Girl you better hope my new girlfriend never finds out what you didAnd girl you better hope my new girlfriend
Never finds out what you did
