My Mistake

Cherry Poppin' Daddies

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Come out and play
You're my mistake
You'll be much better than yesterday
Cursing quietly in the dark
Breathing sweet with a pounding heart
No forevers but good enough for medicineOur magnetism I can't resist
I hate myself when I get like this
The monster's in me and burns to kiss right now
"cause every single dayBaby, you're my mistake
You'll be much better than yesterdayA glazed pig on a platter lies
Birds flew out when I slashed its side
You applauded and flashed your eyes at your lover manYou're fresh and dangerous like Brazil
Brown and common and made to kill
All surrounded and glad to go through hell
"cause every single day, babyYou're my mistake
You'll be much better than yesterday
Say what you were talkin' aboutYou're my mistake
You'll be much better than yesterday
Than yesterday
Than yesterday...Come out and play
