

Ten Dollar Man

Zz Top

Mister Ten Dollar Man with that gold in your hand
Comin' 'round here after sunlight
With your peaches and your pream
And your rollin' magazine
Tellin' me you'll make me feel alright
Now, you'll make me feel alright
Mister Ten Dollar Man with a girl by the hand
Will this ten-spot take her away?
With his slaver's finance
He winked, said, "Take a chance
Don't you know, it happens every day"
I said, "It happens everyday"
Oh yeah yeah oh
Mister Ten Dollar Man with that gun in your hand
Can I get a case of those tonight?
And now you've got the order
I said, "It's time to slip the border
Don't you know it happens everyday"
I said, "It happens everyday", yeah yeah
