

Queen Anne's Lace

Daniel Antopolsky

When I try to explain my words
You patiently let me melt into mu-mu-mumbles
Teaching me to reveal myself
Honey you bring the keep-ins out of me
Honey you bring the keep-ins out of me

Queen Anne's lace lighting through the meadow
Lovely flower with no sign of concern
Of the hour that we must part
Twilight 'tween our last whisper
And before the rising sun
Oh la, la, la, la, la, la....

Lady light
Oh there's no explanation
How the rivers give flow to the sea
How they're borne
In the highest o' mountains
Current of the universe, child of harmony
Current of the universe, child of harmony

No crystal ball
Can tell the current down the stream
Waywardly, how we become our dreams
And I soar
Just gazing at your aura
You're lithe beneath the stardust
And quiver of moonbeams
La, la, la, la, la, la...

You're lithe beneath the stardust
And quiver of moonbeams
Oh I really mean it yeah
