Tunnel Vision

The Swellers

Apparently we are all just hypocrites.
But face it, you're the same,
And you change like seasons change.
Where do you go when everyone is moving on?
The sheep are closing in to follow the whole heard right off a cliff.

We'll watch it pass by in time again.
You say it'll stick but we can't see how.
We'll be the ones still laughing in the end.
It's over now.

So now you're jumping on a new train.
Your previous plans failed, won't be long till this derails.
You're just another face planted in the ground.
You don't have lots to say
Cause you can't think for yourself anyway.

We'll watch it pass by in time again.
You say it'll stick but we can't see how.
We'll be the ones still laughing in the end.
It's over now.

Looking on with tunnel vision.
You can't see anything.
You've got yours and I've got mine.
It's up to you; it's your decision.
We're just living our way, one day at a time.
We're just living our way, one day at a time.
We're just living our way, one day at a time.
