

Real

Plumb

Look at me, I'm twenty three
Beautiful, a sight to see tonight
A little dress to draw the press
And I'll be leaving all the rest behind
Well, be pleased, girl
If this is what you wanted
The whole world is watching you take the stage
What will you say?
Aren't I lovely and do you want me
'Cause I am hungry for something that will make me real
Can you see me and do you love me
'Cause I am desperately searching for something real
I close my eyes, imagine time
Will not forget my sacrifice
I numb the ache and decorate
My emptiness stand naked in the light
Well, be pleased, world
If this is what you wanted
This young girl is everything that you made
What will she say?
Aren't I lovely and do you want me
'Cause I am hungry for something that will make me real
Can you see me and do you love me
'Cause I am desperately searching for something real
The world goes home
The lights go down
My lipstick fades away
And do you want me
'Cause I am hungry for something that will make me real
Can you see me and do you love me
'Cause I am desperately searching for something real
And do you want me
'Cause I am hungry for something that will make me real
Can you see me and do you love me
'Cause I am desperately searching for something real
And do you want me
'Cause I am hungry for something that will make me real
Can you see me and do you love me
'Cause I am desperately searching for something real
