It is said that in love and war everything is the same
And I'm losing the battle for wanting more than friendship.
While with your looks I propose and I fail to conquer
I confuse the signs and I do not know if you want to love me
I feel ... that I have you ... and that I lose you at the same time
My dreams ... are dying
The uncertainty killing my faith
That someday I can have you ...
"And I'm still dreaming, dreaming ..."
"And I'm still waiting, waiting ..."
"An eternity in your arms ..."
-I live dreamed, dreamed ...
I feel ... that I have you ... and that I lose you at the same time
My dreams ... are dying
The uncertainty killing my faith
That someday I can have you ...
- And I'm still dreaming, dreaming ...
- And I'm still waiting, waiting ...
"An eternity in your arms ..."
For you I live dreaming ... dreaming ...
"And I'm still dreaming, dreaming ..."
"And I'm still waiting, waiting ..."
An eternity in your arms ... I live dreaming, dreaming ...
-I live dreaming dreaming ...
-I live dreaming dreaming ..
