Luxury

Meja

Who's giving you luxury It's funny how circumstances takes control taking you places with your mind and soul Like springtime makes me feel better taking me higher Feeding my fantasy (And it feels so good) Giving you luxury Yeah, it feels so good so babe don't thank me I thank you It comes naturally Who's giving you luxury It?s so plain to see Sit back and relax, just enjoy the ride Forget about all the messed up things outside Like friendship, diggin'on deeper Taking us higher Feeding my fantasy (And it feels so good) Yes it feels so good It comes naturally I'm giving yo luxury so baby don't thank me I thank you Who's giving me luxury and it's so plain to see (Open your eyes to see) This world is turning round, round... How precious time is now (We all making history) You're feeding my fantasy I'm giving you luxury It comes naturally so baby don't thank me I thank you and it's so plain to see Who's giving you luxury I thank you So baby, baby and it's so plain to see Who's giving you luxury Who's giving you luxury and you thank me
